On Saturday, March 14, the Winchester Chamber of Commerce will be holding the Winchester Health & Wellness Fair at Town Hall, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Come for a fun, informative, and community-focused event designed to help you feel your best this spring! Whether you're looking for wellness resources, local health experts, or just a great Saturday outing, there's something for everyone.

This free community event brings together top wellness professionals, local businesses, and health experts offering insights on mental health, fitness, stress management, financial well-being, retirement health, coaching, physical therapy, and more.

Event Highlights:

• Complimentary food samples from Playa Bowls & A Borrowed Chef

• Coffee and bagels to start your day right

• Kid's Corner with crafts and games for the little ones

• Meet the candidates running for Select Board, Planning Board, and School Committee -- come with questions!

• The first 25 attendees will receive the much-coveted New Resident Bags

• Raffles every hour with chances to win great prizes!

Bring the whole family, explore local wellness resources, and connect with your community
